COUCH COVERS AND CURTAINS

Such another assortment as ours of attractive and dependable Couch Covers and dainty fresh Draperies at prices within reach of everyone—cannot be found in this locality.

We aimed solely at perfection in gathering these new stocks—those first what would be satisfying to our store friends who depend on us to supply them with goods of this character.

If you are looking for something exclusive in Couch Covers or Draperies, that cost no more than the open patterns, our lines should appeal to you.

High Chairs and Cribs

When you buy, secure substantial, well-made ones that will stand the racket through many a siege. Not long ago the ancient wooden ark of a Rothschild crib sold for $100 at auction. Wonderful! A clumsy old article at that price, when for only $6.50 the Hooker store can offer a beauty. And good enough to hold an American king or queen. Come, see them.

A most wonderful picture and one of the most educational value is offered at the Pavilion to-day, under the title, "Sleeping Sickness." This picture, taken with the aid of a microscope, shows the blood corpuscles of a rat, previously infected with this terrible African sickness, shows the manner in which the virus attack the blood, causing the sleep which never ends. The picture is intensely interesting and shows us one of the many wonders possible to moving pictures. Two good acts of vaudeville and another excellent picture completes the program.

At the Dreamland theatre to-day, "Davy Jones' Landladies," a breezy, bounding comedy, with waves of roaring laughter. Once more Davy Jones and his parrot arrive in port with no landing or place to bunk. A possible berth looms in sight and Davy steers his foot-steps straight ahead and walks up the gangplank to the front door, where he is received by a blooming "Gazabo" of a maid, who pilots him to the landlady. She shows him a furnished "stateroom" in which he makes himself at home. Davy and the landlady are attracted and wave "signals" to that effect, which are at once interpreted as "mutual."

Letter From Mayor Mutch.

Editor, Barre Daily Times: In my remarks on the advertising of Barre granite, also suggestion that the time has arrived when the public of Barre and vicinity should take definite action, so that the erection of a suitable monument of Barre granite, in memory of the old soldiers, should become an accomplished fact, your paper stated that "Mayor Mutch thinks that a soldiers' memorial would advertise Barre granite best."

That statement is a little different from the statement made by me, as, in my opinion, it is a very different subject even for the best authorities on advertising to say what would be the best method. All advertising has to be charged up to the profit and loss account. When this account is balanced, then and only then can be determined which is best. But I did say that all advertising should be carried on and made the suggestion of home advertising and stated that the erection of a soldiers' memorial would be a good one, not only as the means of advertising Barre granite, educating our citizens in the different classes of workmanship, but as a debt that the population of this vicinity owes to the cause of patriotism and in honor of our old soldiers.

Yours respectfully,
James Mutch.

ON HER 70TH BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. G. B. Durkee Received Her Neighbors and Friends.

About thirty neighbors and relatives called on Mrs. G. B. Durkee of 360 North Main street yesterday afternoon and last evening to remind her of her seventieth birthday, and the occasion was one of great pleasure to all. Mrs. Durkee was very much surprised. She was the recipient of many fine presents from her visitors, the presentations being made in an informal manner. Refreshments were served, and the grandchildren, nephews and nieces, entertained the guests with songs. Mrs. C. C. Varney, one of Mrs. Durkee's longtime neighbors, wrote and presented the following:—

Seventy years you have passed,
No reflections can you cast,
With great anxiety to do your best,
Always ready to take the care from the rest,
Night and day you have journeyed along,
Bringing up your family to avoid wrong,
Always teaching them to take the right path,
To enter the kingdom of heaven at last,
Greeting your neighbors with heavenly smiles
Is like riding in an automobile many miles
Now your locks are turning gray
We are just as anxious for you to stay,
The little ones you have cherished and loved
All cling to you like the angels above.
We all join in wishing you many happy returns of the day
With pleasures galore on earth while you stay.

A Tribute of Affection.
Something of the sympathetic kindness of nature of the late Frederick Greenwood came out in a little speech made by J. M. Barrie on the occasion of Mr. Greenwood's seventy-fifth birthday, when the men who had worked under him on the St. James and the Pall Mall Gazette met to do him honor. In the course of his remarks Mr. Barrie confessed that he had bought his first silk hat "to impress" the veteran editor. Then he added impulsively:—

"Oh, Greenwood, it is for your kindness to us boys in our first silk hats that we love you!"

EAST BARRE.

Alonzo Taplin, our popular catcher, has gone to Bradford to attend the fair.

The East Barre A. C. team defeated the Rutland Independent club of Barre Monday evening by a score of 6 to 3.

The feature of the game was Doyle's pitching, he allowing three hits and fanning 13 men, while Rediani of I. I. C. struck out nine and was touched for seven hits, including four two-baggers.

The next game will be Friday evening, with the North Barre team as the attraction, and it is sure to be a good one, for Nute says he has got a fast team. Come out and see it. The admission is only 10 cents.

Mrs. Charles Marshall of Poultney is under arrest, pending the condition of her husband, whom she stabbed Saturday.

She and her husband were quarreling over financial matters, when Mrs. Marshall picked up a paring knife and struck him in the left side, inflicting an ugly flesh wound. The knife struck a rib, or the injury would have proved more serious. He is in a critical condition, but will probably recover. Mr. Marshall is 30 years of age and employed in the slate quarries of Poultney.
